DETAILED ACTION

Applicants' response, filed 10/25/2007, is acknowledged. Claims 1 – 38 are pending, and claims 12 – 38 are withdrawn. Claims 1 – 11 are considered on the merits below.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 – 11 remain rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 16 – 30 of U.S. Patent No. 5,780,055 to Habib et al for reasons of record and those discussed below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 – 3 and 5 – 11 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 5,780,055 to Habib et al for reasons of record and those discussed below.

Claims 1 – 10 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 6,254,891 to Aneabonam et al for reasons of record and those discussed below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3 and 4 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 5,780,055 to Habib et al for reasons of record and those discussed below.

Response to Arguments

Applicants' arguments have been fully considered, but are not persuasive. Applicants argue that the cited prior art teaches separate cushioning beads and active-agent containing beads, but does not teach beads that have both cushioning agent and active-agent. In reply, it is noted that the claims do not require beads having both cushioning agent and active agent. The pertinent part of claim 1 states that the cushioning component comprises "... active-loaded particles; wherein the placebo cushioning component and the active-loaded particles are admixed to form an admixture..." This is understood to mean that the active loaded particles are mixed with a placebo cushioning component, which is the material of part (a) of the claim. The claim includes, but does not require, an embodiment where the active loaded particles contain both active agent and placebo cushioning component. The only material that must be present in the active loaded particle, according to the claim, is an active agent. Applicants' arguments appear to be based on an overly narrow interpretation of claim 1, and thus are not persuasive.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
